Welcome to your Winter DalesBus Services

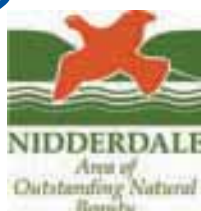

The beautiful countryside of the Yorkshire Dales is easily accessible from most parts of West Yorkshire by bus and train, even during the winter months. This booklet has been produced by Metro and the Dales & Bowland Community Interest Company as a guide to the main bus services into the Yorkshire Dales for winter 2011-12.

- Most weekday bus services, and many weekend bus services, continue unchanged from the summer.
- Daily services are provided from Ilkley to Grassington (services 74 and 874), from Skipton to Grassington (services 72, 72R and 872) from Harrogate to Pateley Bridge (service 24), from Garsdale to Hawes (services LWB and 855) and along Wensleydale (services 156, 157 and 856). On most other routes there are regular buses on Mondays to Saturdays.
- There are DalesBus services from Leeds, Otley and Keighley every Sunday, with services from York on some Sundays. Connections to Harrogate, Ilkley and Skipton to connect with DalesBus services can also be made on other bus and train services.
- The Dales Rover ticket scheme provides great value-for-money day tickets on Sundays and Bank Holidays, with discounts for students and MetroRover holders on many routes. Every fare-paying adult with a Dales Rover ticket can take up to two children with them free.
- Don't forget that English National Concessionary Bus Passes are valid for free off-peak travel on all DalesBus services.

The services in this booklet are either provided on a commercial basis by the bus operators or are operated under contract to North Yorkshire, Lancashire or Cumbria County Councils or the Dales & Bowland Community Interest Company. The Winter Sunday DalesBus network is funded by Metro, the Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority, the Dales Integrated Transport Alliance, Nidderdale Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and CPRE Wensleydale.
